++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with long sunny spells. Warm in west.

Today:
A mainly dry day with long spells of sunshine, with just an outside chance of an isolated light shower over the mountains. It will feel warm or very warm in west, although eastern coasts cooler with a light onshore breeze. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with evening sunshine giving way to long clear spells overnight. With light winds a touch of frost is possible and perhaps a few mist patches. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Sunday:
Another largely dry day with long spells of sunshine, still the risk of a very isolated shower developing over the highlands. Light, mainly southerly breeze. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Cloudy, outbreaks of showery rain Monday, perhaps heavy in north, and strengthening northeasterly breeze. Cloudy start Tuesday with patchy rain but brighter later. Sunny spells and showers Wednesday. Cooler.
